Dear Sir/Madam

I would like to make a point regarding today's news on a possible G14 breakaway league.

I believe that this should be resisted 100%. The team I support in Scotland, Hibernian F.C., have an outside chance of a place in the Champions League qualifying rounds through our final league position this season. This 'dream' of mixing with the elite of European football would be taken away if the G14 clubs make the Champions League a closed shop.

I urge UEFA to do everything in it's power to reign in these clubs. If they do choose to break away, I would hope that yourselves in conjunction with FIFA would ban any player who plays in this rebel league from playing for their country and disqualify the clubs from domestic competition.

Yours in football,

David Igoe.
